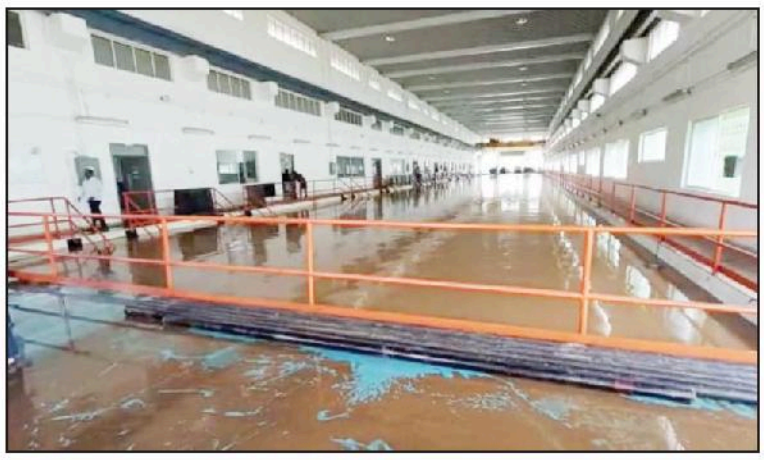
T.K. Halli water plant at Malavalli flooded

Cauvery water supply to Bengaluru disrupted

CM scheduled to visit treatment plant today to avert water crisis



Mandya, Sept. 5 (Mohan Raj &BCT)- Cauvery water supply to Bengaluru was disrupted this morning as the main water treatment plant at Tore Kadanahalli (T.K. Halli) in Malavalli taluk operated by the Bengaluru Water Supply and Sewerage Board (BWS&SB) was flooded due to heavy rain that has been lashing since yesterday evening.

Considering the gravity of the situation, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai is scheduled to visit T.K. Halli today and will hold meetings with officials to avert a crisis situation.

The water treatment plant is located near Halagur and is 80 kilometres from Bengaluru. Due to massive flooding, water has entered the machinery, bringing them to a grinding halt. All the water treatment rooms have been flooded as rainwater gushed inside.

Water released from the Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Dam reaches the T.K. Halli treatment plant where the drinking water is purified to be supplied to lakhs of homes in Bengaluru.

The rains have also blocked the Kollegal-Kanakapura Road. The treatment plant has been partially submerged and unless the water level recedes, the machines cannot be repaired.

Abhimanyu to carry Wooden Ambari from today

Second batch of Dasara elephants to arrive on Sept. 7; 18-year-old Parthasarathy youngest

The idol of Goddess Chamundeshwari placed inside the Wooden Ambari this morning before Abhimanyu carries it.

Mysuru, Sept. 5 (MTY&BCT)- Dasara elephant Abhimanyu, entrusted with the responsibility of carrying the 750-kg Golden Howdah (Ambari) with the idol of Goddess Chamundeshwari during the Vijayadashami procession, will carry the Wooden Howdah this evening for the first time this year.

Abhimanyu was till now carrying sand-laden bags for it to get used to carrying the Golden Howdah with ease. From today, the 280-kg Wooden Howdah will be mounted on him along with sandbags, Gaadhi-Namdha (a cushion-like material), 50-kg ropes and the body weight of the Mahout to achieve a combined weight of 1,050 kgs.

The Wooden Howdah is the exact replica of the Golden Howdah and is used for rehearsals. Before the Ambari is mounted on Abhimanyu, minor repairs for the Wooden Howdah are carried out so that it can withstand the pressure of pushing and pulling.

The Forest Department has made enough preparations for the event by oiling the crane that will be used to mount the Wooden Howdah. The formal puja for the Wooden Howdah and rituals will be held at 4 pm and the mounting and tying process will begin at 4.30 pm.

Abhimanyu will venture out of the Palace with the Wooden Ambari at 5 pm and walk till Bannimantap along with eight other elephants. The Wooden Howdah will be dismounted at Bannimantap and will be carried in a vehicle back to the Palace while Abhimanyu will walk only with sandbags. One more crane has been set up at Bannimantap Torch Light Parade Grounds to de-mount the Wooden Howdah.

Along with Abhimanyu and the team, a vehicle from Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC) and an Abhaya team from the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) will proceed along the Raja Marga to identify and prune the tree branches that obstruct the Ambari-carrying Abhimanyu. There must be a height of at least 25 feet (the height of the elephant carrying the Howdah from the ground is 22 feet) for the elephant to pass smoothly. Usually, the CESC follows the 25-feet norm.

Grooming other Howdah-carriers

To groom the second and third line of Howdah-carrying elephants, the Wooden Howdah training will also be given to Gopalaswamy, Mahendra, Bheema and Dhananjaya in the coming days in batches so that they too are trained to carry the weight.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

As children, we carry simple and small baggage — mostly related to studies, love to friends and family, some fear, jealousy and so on. The less fortunate among us carry financial burden as well. Whatever the baggage, children carry them without guile, looking forward to better days.

As we get older, however, the baggage becomes heavier — all the focus, even of formal education, is towards making money, ethical or otherwise, and clouded with numerous diversions. Some of them, as history stands witness, have caused calamities of civilisational proportions. Because, the baggage now includes hatred towards other orders and beliefs, ethnicity, nationality, colour, creed and what have you.

While many of us are blessed to have our biological needs fulfilled, we squander our time in the seemingly unending race to satisfy our social needs, in competition with others. We seldom bother about excelling in our individual pursuits and attach undue importance to wealth or status. Age brings a new dimension to the whole business of what you wish to do with yourself in the limited, and fast receding time, of life or consciousness still left with. We may have several choices for utilising the rather frugal time left. How best to use it? The easiest, common and compelling one, is to learn not to worry.

REALLY...?

- The first known beer was called kui, brewed by the ancient Chinese around 7,000 BC. The earliest evidence of beer brewing in the West is from 3500-3100 BC at the Godin Tepe site in modern Iran, but it is believed that the Sumerians were brewing much earlier than that, even as far back as 10,000 BC. Sumerian women generally brewed their beer from bippar (twice-baked barley bread); it was as thick as porridge and drunk through a straw.
- A French research team analysing the carbon atoms of Egyptian mummies dating between 3,500 BC and AD 600 discovered that there was a remarkable consistency in their diet over time: They ate mainly wheat and barley, with some millet and sorghum. One exception made was for the builders of the pyramids, who consumed 1,800 kilograms (4,000 lb) of beef, lamb and goat every day. That was a perk of working for the government, though, and for the most part, meat and fish were more rarely eaten than plant foods.

VOICE OF THE READER

Prof. B. Sheik Ali lived an active and purposeful life

Prof. B. Sheik Ali flanked by H.R. Bapu Satyanarayana and Dr. G.V. Gopinath.

Sir,

The death of my dear friend Prof. B. Sheik Ali on Sept. 1 came as a shock to me. By any standard he was a remarkable person and lived an active life till the end except for a few days of sudden complications in his health when he died at the age of 98.

At an advanced age when most people would suffer from several ailments and loss of many physical faculties like hearing problem, memory, eye sight, lack of interest in intellectual pursuit etc., he was a complete contrast living an active and purposeful life.

It sent me on a memory lane recollecting my experience with him. We both along with Dr. G.V. Gopinath (formerly the Director of AEC) were three elders going regularly for walk in Manasagangothri for several years. I knew him since 2002 as he was the member of the Mysore Agenda Task Force when I used to take him in my car for the meetings.

When we went for a walk we would hold his hands in turn. He was very punctilious in his habits. He would leave his house to be at my place exactly at 6.30 in the morning. I would take his hands and walk to Manasagangothri where Dr. Gopinath would join us. We must have made a pretty picture and many persons would ask us to pose for the picture. There used to be several groups of runners gathering at the clock tower and ask us to join for a group photo.

While walking, we would discuss many subjects and it was such a lively time. Dr. Gopinath is a good writer in Kannada and he would regale us with stories. Prof. Sheik Ali would recount lot of Urdu Shairies while I would sing Kannada songs.

Amongst us no subject was a taboo. Politics of course was a frequent subject of our discussion. For Convocations or any function I would go with him. I also accompanied him when he went to Ramakrishna Mission to deliver lectures. I was invited as chief guest at his school several times.

His graciousness is that he would acknowledge in his book any small information I supplied. Since many aspects have already been covered in SOM, I would not like to repeat them.

Prof. Sheik Ali never used computer or typewriter and he wrote everything in his hand. When he writes it is like hieroglyphics, so perfect. He said it is due to the fact that he used quill in writing during his childhood days. Not many people are aware that all the seven printed volumes of the 'History of Karnataka' was written by his hand! Also, he said that he was the person who introduced Kannada in History class.

Just before COVID, he was advised not to go for walk as his bones are brittle. Confined to the house he was active. We used to visit him frequently. I can only say goodbye my dear friend and rest in peace.

Sand sculptures to attract visitors at Dasara Exhibition Grounds

City artist M.N. Gowri to create sculptures of Dr. Puneeth Rajkumar, Prime Minister Narendra Modi and freedom fighters by Sept. 20

By A. Ganesh

Mysuru, Sept. 5- Sand sculptures of late Sandalwood actor Puneeth Rajkumar, Prime Minister Narendra Modi and freedom fighters are being readied at the Dasara Exhibition Grounds in city and the sculptures are most likely to be completed by Sept. 20.

As Dasara expo was not held for two years due to outbreak of COVID pandemic, it has been decided to hold the expo this year in a unique way and hence the Karnataka Exhibition Authority (KEA), in a bid to attract people in large number, is making way for sand sculptures at the venue.

The sand sculptures are being created at the place in the Dasara Exhibition Grounds where more people gather. Two separate sheds, measuring 20x50 ft. each, have been erected using iron pillars and corrugated sheets, to protect the sculptures from rain and wind and the workers are constructing a platform using cement to prevent water logging. Noted sand artist of city M.N. Gowri is creating the sand sculptures.

Sand artist M.N. Gowri with KEA Chairman Mirle Srinivas Gowda at Dasara Exhibition Grounds in city.

M-Sand instead of river sand

Due to non-availability of regular river sand, M-Sand is being used to create the sculptures and 10 loads of M-Sand have been supplied yesterday.

If the sculptures were created using river sand, there was no need to use colours for them, but as M-Sand is being used now, the sculptures may turn white once the M-Sand dries up which may not be attractive. Hence, to make the sand sculptures attractive, spray paints will be used.

In memory of 'Power Star' Puneeth Rajkumar, four to five sand sculptures of the late actor in his younger days along with his parents Dr. Rajkumar and Parvathamma Rajkumar, the actor as a soldier from his last movie 'James,' a pigeon sitting on the shoulder of Puneeth are being created in a shed.

In the second shed, sand sculptures of PM Modi in yoga pose and freedom fighters marking the occasion of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav are being created.

As the required M-Sand has been supplied and construction of the sheds almost complete, sand artist Gowri, along with three helpers, is preparing to create the sand sculptures and is confident of completing the sculptures before Sept. 20.

"The sand sculptures are being created at a cost of Rs. 5 lakh to Rs. 6 lakh. Each sculpture is 10 ft. tall and 20 ft. wide. Steps have been taken to protect the sculptures from rain and wind. The family members of late Puneeth Rajkumar will be participating in Dasara Mahotsava and there are plans to bring them here," said KEA Chief Executive Officer (CEO) Rudresh.

"I am happy that I have been given the opportunity to showcase my art. The works on sand sculptures are going on and KEA has provided all necessary facilities and I am confident of completing the sculptures within 15 days," sand artist Gowri said.

Mysuru, Sept. 5 (RKB&DM)- Strongly opposing the University of Mysore's (UoM) move to let out the Heritage Jayalakshmi Vilas Mansion in Manasagangothri campus, former UoM Vice-Chancellor Prof. J. Shashidhar Prasad urged the University to retain the Mansion as a Museum.

Addressing a press meet at Jaladarshini Guest House here on Sunday, Prof. Prasad said that the University should not let out the Jayalakshmi Mansion either to the Central Government or other offices.

Pointing out that when Kuvempu was the UoM Vice-Chancellor decades ago, he built Manasagangothri campus by purchasing 360 acres of land where the Jayalakshmi Vilas Mansion existed from the Royal family, Prof. Shashidhar Prasad alleged that the University had failed to properly maintain the Mansion and as a result, the Mansion had turned dilapidated.

Maintaining that the UoM should itself take up repair works, the former VC said that the University has entered into an agreement with the Kannada and Culture Department for letting out the Mansion on a 30-year lease to the Department for the establishment of Centre of Excellence for Studies in Classical Kannada.

Asserting that once the Mansion is let out on lease, it will be difficult to take back, Prof. Prasad said that the Mansion, which currently houses a Folk Museum, should continue as a Museum. Wondering whether the University has no funds for repair and maintenance of the Mansion, at a time when it is constructing new hi-tech buildings, he urged the UoM to reconsider its decision to let out the Mansion.

Former UoM Syndicate Member Dr. K. Mahadev said that Infosys Foundation Chairperson Sudha Murty had renovated the Jayalakshmi Vilas Mansion way back in 2001 at a cost of Rs. 1.7 crore. Also, the UoM had resolved to continue the Folk Museum in the Mansion, with free admission to public. But it is not correct to let out the Mansion on lease for other purposes, he contended.

Historian Prof. P.V. Nanjaraj Urs said that Jayalakshmi Vilas Mansion was an iconic structure of UoM. Expressing disappointment that the Mansion building is not being maintained properly, he said that it was not right on the part of the University to let out the Mansion, which is a pride of UoM.

Wanting the UoM to get funds from the Government for repair and maintenance of the Mansion, he warned that a movement will be launched if the University does not reconsider its decision.

Mysuru, Sept.5 (MTY&DM)- A total of 30 teachers were conferred District-level Best Teacher Award at the Teachers Day celebration organised by the District Administration in association with Zilla Panchayat and Department of Public Instruction, at Kalamandira on Hunsur Road here this morning.

The programme, which was supposed to begin at 10 am, began two hours late.

District Minister S.T. Somashekar conferred the awards to 30 teachers (ten each from Primary, Higher Primary and High School sections) from the District and felicitated them.

The speakers said that Teachers Day is being celebrated marking the birth anniversary of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, former President of India and a great scholar, teacher and philosopher. The Day is dedicated to the teaching fraternity and celebrated in recognition of the works of educators, including teachers, researchers and professors, they added.

The Teachers Association office-bearers presented a memorandum to the District Minister complaining that teachers were more used for non-academic purposes. Maintaining that the service of teachers are more utilised for purposes other than that of the Education Department, they asserted that this has hurt the academics in schools, resulting in poor exam results. Arguing that the services of NGOs which are many in number can be engaged for outdoor duties such as conduct of survey, census, collection of data etc., the Association demanded that the teachers be kept out from such duties. Leaving the teachers for just doing teaching and other Education Department activities, will hugely help in academics and achievement of better results, they further said.

After receiving the memorandum, Somashekar said that Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai will be coming to the city tomorrow, during which he will forward the memorandum to him and discuss the issue.

MLAs L. Nagendra, Tanveer Sait and S.A. Ramdas, MLC C.N. Manjegowda, Mayor (Incharge) Sunanda Palanetra, Additional DC Dr. B.S. Manjunathaswamy and a host of office-bearers of Teachers Associations were present.

61st Heritage Music Fest at 8th Cross V.V. Mohalla

Playing with finesse

Vid. Anil Srinivasan and Pt. Pravin Godkhindi presenting a Piano-Bansuri Concert as part of the 61st Heritage Music Festival organised by SPVGMC Trust at 8th Cross, V.V. Mohalla, last evening. They are accompanied by Ananth R. Krishnan on mridanga.

By Dr. Padmavathi Narasimhan

On the 4th day of the music series, well-known flautist Pt. Pravin Godkhindi and Indian pianist Vid. Anil Srinivasan performed with Ananth R. Krishnan on mridanga.

This combination of flute and piano is rare in the field. This jugalbandi was a laudatory attempt and the music brimmed with emotional poignancy creating a hypnotic effect.

In the beginning of the concert Pravin Godkhindi said that they are here to create music on stage and music is to provide joy to those who listen. Given the fact that Pravin enjoys solo concerts more than jugalbandis, this concert was extremely well-received by the audience.

Anil Srinivasan is well-known for his collaborative work with Karnatak vocalist Sikkil Gurucharan and for his work with music education. His present concert with Godkhindi was marked for melody.

The duo commenced their concert with Hamsadhwani, furnishing a rich and fertile tonal space for elaboration. The composition chosen was 'Vatapi Ganapatim' as expected. Only the initial part of the composition was played though. The raga unfurled focusing on the emotions laden in the notes, thereby producing a pleasing evocation of the ragabhava marked by a euphonious symphony.

They next chose Madhuvanti rag. Both in this and Bhimpalas, Anil's unhurried and steady explorations blended harmoniously with Pravin's alap in the higher octaves sculpting the gestalt of the raga and its intricate beauty with precision and feeling.

While playing Bhimpalas, Pravin brought in the first phrase of the popular Dhanashri tillana, which brought thunderous applause from the audience. Pravin's playing was marked by his control over breath, aesthetic appeal of the raga and his able balancing between traditional and creative music.

Sindhubhairavi brought mellifluous tunes to recreate the grandeur of Purandaradasa's popular 'Tamboori meetidava bhavabdhi daatidava', which was followed by another devaranama 'Jagadoddharana', which was exquisitely rendered.

The concert was greatly enhanced by the mridanga accompaniment of Ananth Krishnan in the rendition of Madhuvanti composition, wherein Ananth gave suitable replies to Pravin.

Teacher's Day

Tribute to Dr. S. Radhakrishnan

September, 5 is celebrated by Teachers' Day all over India to pay homage to a great teacher. Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan. He is a role model to all the teachers in India. His life and writings have inspired millions of teachers irrespective of the subject or the level of teaching. Coming from the poor family he was an ordinary student and started teaching at Presidency College, Madras. During his career be developed himself as an eloquent speaker with exceptional command over English language. He was awarded the order of Merit by the queen of England.

Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan was a teacher among great philosophers and a great philosopher among teachers. He was a Statesman of great distinction and as an Ambassador to Russia, he played unique role promoting Hindu philosophy in Russia and other countries. He taught at a number of Indian and Foreign Universities and worked as a Spalding Professor of Eastern Religion and Ethics in Oxford University.

Mysore University was one of the Universities which had the good fortune of having him on its faculty. As a professor at Maharaja's College and as Vice Chancellor of Andhra and Benaras Universities, he served as role model to teachers and teacher administrators.

His speeches and writings have made a significant contribution to understand and interpret Hinduism and Hindu philosophy in India and abroad. He was awarded Bhart Ratna in 1955 and was elected as President during 1962. In all his writings he stressed the importance of rational and scientific thinking. He analysed the great role played by the teachers in shaping the density of future India. He warned teachers and intellectuals against complacency and intellectual laziness.

In all his writings, he explained the great teachings of

Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan

Hindu culture and deplored the fact that large number of people are following blind beliefs and rituals. In explaining the role of teachers, Dr. Radhakrishnan wrote: "The function of College is to produce not only men of high learning and scholarship but also provide best fitted and trained leadership for the community."

Here is another quote from his book Foundations of Civilization (page 79): "There are some men in our country who use scientific facts and theories to buttress their own pet prejudices. They argue that aeroplanes were found in ancient India and quote latest research to justify and defend the cruelties of caste. When passion and prejudice clothe themselves from true sense in the garb of scientific respectability, when they invent pseudo-science, to save themselves from the true science become more dangerous". How valid are his observations even today!.

Mysuru Pailwans get ready to enter Dasara wrestling arena

By Mohan Kayaka

With Dasara fast approaching, wrestlers of Mysuru are getting ready to enter the wrestling arena to take part in the prestigious Dasara wrestling event due to take place during Dasara festivities.

The Pailwans, both Junior and Senior, are bracing themselves for the grand event by sweating it out in about 35 'Garadi Manes' spread across the city. The Pailwans begin the day with workouts as early as 3 am at these Garadi Manes. However, only those who excel in Garadi Manes are identified and trained for the grand Dasara wrestling tournament. The select Pailwans who are going to take part in the wrestling bouts, are given tips on training and food practices, which they should maintain everyday.

While senior wrestler trainer L. Manjappa is training the Dasara wrestling aspirants at Lions Club of Mysore, retired trainer K. Srinivas Gowda is training the wrestlers at Sahukar Channaiah wrestling arena, with support from Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Garadi Sangha.

Likewise, wrestlers are sweating it out at Paduvarahalli's Hattu Janagala Garadi, Sunnadakeri's Bestara Kalannanavara Garadi, Bhootappana Garadi, Kyathamaranahalli's Hattu Janagala Garadi, ISKCON Garadi, Ittigegud Garadi and K.G. Koppal Garadi.

Wrestling training underway at Sahukar Channaiah Wrestling Arena in city.

Wrestling has a special place during Dasara and as such there is a growing number of participants. The seven-day Dasara wrestling event attracts more than 200 pairs of wrestlers from different parts of the State, chiefly from the districts of Mysuru, Bengaluru, Chamarajanagar, Belagavi, Dharwad, Bagalkot, Chikkodi and Ramanagara.

Most wrestlers prefer taking part in 'Nada Kusti' over 'Mat Kusti' in Dasara wrestling competition. Young Pailwans and Pailwans weighing more than 90 kg take part in different categories of wrestling bouts, with more than 100 Pailwans from Mysuru alone entering the arena. Ahead of Dasara, the Garadi Manes of the city are flooded with Dasara wrestling aspirants, who vie with each other for getting the perfect training for the grand event. Apart from 'Nada Kusti,' Pailwans also take part in Matti and Mat formats of wrestling.

Meanwhile, the number of Garadi Manes in the city is fast declining as years pass by. There were about 74 Garadi Manes during the times of Wadiyars. But this number has now come down to about 30. This apart, the number of Garadi Manes elsewhere in the districts of Mysuru and Chamarajanagar too has come down drastically over the years. Several Garadi Manes are forced to shut down for want of patronage. However, there is a brighter side too as villagers and village leaders are taking care of Garadi Manes in some places, while in the case of some others, senior wrestlers are striving to keep the Garadi Mane tradition alive and kicking by imparting training to budding wrestlers periodically.

Pailwan R. Yeshwanth

Pailwan Basavaraju

Pailwan Bhyrappa Nayaka

Pailwan R. Yeshwanth, who bagged the first place for three successive years (2017 to 2019) at the Divisional-level of Dasara wrestling event, continues to be the prime attraction this year too. Pailwan Yeshwanth, who has trained at Sunnadakeri's Bhootappana Garadi Mane, is now all set to enter the Dasara wrestling arena this year in the open white category. Yeshwanth, who has won many State-level wrestling tournaments, is also the prime attraction at wrestling events that take place in other States.

Likewise, Pailwan Basavaraju of Kyathamaranahalli's Hattu Mane Garadi, who has won 5 Dasara Nada Kusti titles, Pailwan Mukesh and Pailwan Chandru of Paduvarahalli Hattu Mane Garadi, Sunnadakeri's Bestara Kalannanavara Garadi Mane's Bhyrappa Nayaka, Pailwan Thakur, Pailwan Chetan Gowda, Pailwan Yogesh Udbur, Pailwan Shakti Ramesh, Pailwan Rajendra, 13-year-old Woman Pailwan Ritu, who is getting trained by senior trainer L. Manjappa, other woman wrestlers Sinchana and Yashaswini, who are being trained by K. Srinivas Gowda, are the other attractions of Dasara wrestling bouts this year.

According to senior wrestling trainer K. Srinivas Gowda, Pailwans who win Dasara titles will get more honour and recognition. Maintaining that taking part in Dasara wrestling competition itself is something special, he said that the winner will always have a special place. Pointing out that sponsors announce prizes for some wrestling bouts, he said that the Dasara heritage wrestling arena is getting readied after a gap of two years due to COVID pandemic and all Pailwans who want to participate are eagerly awaiting the tournament, which attracts nationwide wrestling enthusiasts for its speciality.

'Nada Kusti' is exciting, scintillating

Nada Kusti is the most popular wrestling bout among all the Dasara wrestling categories. The wrestler pairs will be paired depending upon the capacity of wrestlers. However, age and weight factors are not taken into account while pairing.

Senior Pailwan Mahadev told Star of Mysore that the wrestlers are free to take on their challengers in 'Nada Kusti' category. The speciality of this category is that newcomers challenge the experienced wrestlers.

The bouts will be all the more exciting whenever our local wrestlers challenge Pailwans from other States.

Soon as a local wrestler is paired to take on a wrestler from other State, the local wrestler gets special training and at the same time will be under observation. Here, the weight factor of the opponent is chiefly taken into account.

On the day of the bout, the local wrestler will take the blessings of his 'Guru,' before entering the wrestling arena. If he wins the bout, then he will be taken in a grand procession from the arena to the Garadi Mane where he underwent training.

Here it is to be noted that 'Nada Kusti' is more special than 'Point Kusti' type. 'Nada Kusti' is exciting and scintillating every moment of the bout and as such it has gained more popularity than any other categories of wrestling.

The nearest category that comes close to 'Nada Kusti' in terms of popularity and patronage is 'Marpeet Kusti,' which too is exciting.

'Mat Kusti' has future

According to senior wrestling trainer L. Manjappa, 'Mat Kusti' has a better future than 'Matti Kusti' category of wrestling. In Matti Kusti, Pailwans compete for a few years, before leaving it. Though this often keeps them in good health, there is no individual benefit from this category. Winning the bout in this category will not help the winners much in getting Government benefits.

But 'Mat Kusti' is different as it is of point type and the winners of bouts in this form can earn name and fame at different levels. Also, the winners will stand a better chance to get Government jobs under Sports quota at the State and National-levels.

However, Matti wrestlers argue that the Government should come to their aid by extending these benefits to them too, Manjappa explained.

WORD OF THE DAY

Grandiose

Pronunciation: gran-dee-OHSS.
Meaning: Grandiose is most often used disapprovingly to describe something that seems impressive or is intended to be impressive, but is either not possible or practical.
Origin: When it comes to bigness, there's grand and then there's grandiose. Both words can be used to describe something impressive in size, scope, or effect, but while grand may lend its noun a bit of dignity, grandiose often implies a whiff of pretension.
The difference between a grand plan for the city park and a grandiose one, for example, might be the difference between a tasteful fountain and a garden full of topiaries cut in the shapes of 19th century literary figures. So if you're choosing between the two, a helpful mnemonic might be that the extra letters in grandiose suggest that one's ideas, claims, promises, schemes, dreams—you get the idea—are a bit extra.
Example: "Dave says their engineer had 'grandiose ideas about wanting to make songs sound like Phil Spector,' but the group steered the sound in a more austere direction, inspired by the first two Strokes albums, along with grungier records by Sheer Mag and fellow Aussies Royal Headache." — Evan Minsker

THE ODD WORD

Galah

Blue-gray Australian cockatoo.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Go for broke

Meaning: You use the expression 'Go for Broke' to indicate that you're going to take a big risk, even if it means losing everything in the process.
Origin: Not surprisingly, the term 'go for broke' comes from gambling, where people bet all of their money in the hope of winning more.
Example: "I've been known to go for broke while playing Monopoly; I usually buy as many hotels as I can."

QUOTE BOX

The worst feeling in the world is when you can't love anyone else because your heart still belongs to the one who broke it. —Unknown

CRYPTOQUIP

The Cryptoquip is a substitution cipher in which one letter stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Single letters, short words and words using an apostrophe give you clues to locating vowels. Solution is by trial and error.
